

Do you have an innovative business idea? Does your business combat an environmental or social issue? Do you know what the Sustainable Development Goals are?!

If you answered 'yes' to any of these questions, then you have everything it takes to enter NACUE's Pitching Battle Competition at the Student Enterprise Conference on Saturday 23rd February 2019.

About the Competition:

The Pitching Battle will be focused on a business that in one way or another, has created a way to combat one of the Sustainable Development Goals.

The Pitching Competition will be a 3-round battle, where start-ups will go head to head, to be advanced onto the next round. Elimination will be conducted based on a bracket system with 12 participants starting out, 6 participants in the second round and 3 progressing to the finals. The final 3 contestants will compete for one spot in the semi-finals of the 2019 Varsity Pitch Competition, granting them an opportunity to win £10,000 for their Business Idea! In addition, the winner will receive a congratulatory medal, mentoring from NACUE and social media promotion in relation to winning at SEC19 and going on to compete at the semi-finals.

Requirements:

- Participants must be a current UK university student
- Business idea must combat one of the Sustainable Development Goals
- Must purchase a ticket to the Student Enterprise Conference 2019

Registration

Applications close Sunday 20th January 2019 (Midday)

To apply to compete in NACUE's Pitching Battle via: <http://bit.ly/pitchbattle19>

Shortlist announcement Friday 1st February 2019